The Louvre Pyramid

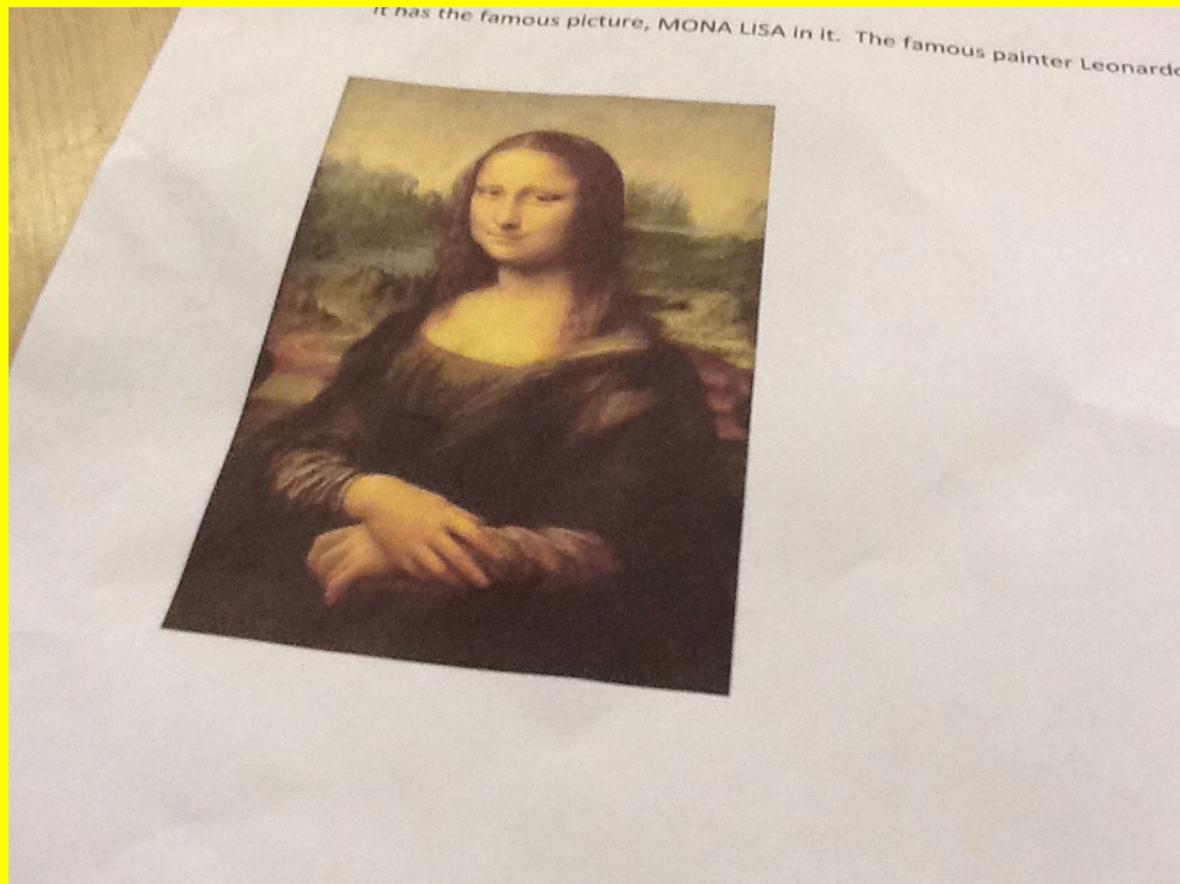

The Louvre Pyramid is a large glass and metal pyramid. Surrounded by three smaller pyramids, in the main courtyard of the Louvre Palace in Paris.

The large pyramid is the main entrance to the Louvre Museum.

Completed in 1989 it has become a landmark of the city of Paris. It was commissioned by President Francois Mitterrand in 1984 and was designed by I.M. Pei. The structure is made entirely with glass segments and reaches a height of 71 ft. It consists of 603 rhombus-shaped and 70 triangular glass segments.

The Mona Lisa is a famous picture that was put in the Louvre.
